

INTERVIEW 11

Interviewer: All right. How long have you lived in the area?

Interviewee: I moved here in [REDACTED]. So what's that?

Interviewer: [REDACTED]

Interviewee: Yeah.

Interviewer: Yeah. What brought you here?

Interviewee: [REDACTED]. So we'd come up in the summertime for weeks, and then we just felt like we should move up. So we did.

Interviewer: So you did that for like [REDACTED] years?

Interviewee: Yeah.

Interviewer: I didn't know that. Is that like [REDACTED] or?

Interviewee: So it was actually-

Interviewer: Before that?

Interviewee: ... before [REDACTED], yeah.

Interviewer: Okay. What church is that? Through [REDACTED] or through-

Interviewee: It wasn't through [REDACTED] at the time it was actually through the [REDACTED] here and a couple pastors ago.

Interviewer: Okay. I didn't realize you were coming up that long before you moved in.

Interviewee: Yeah, we've been coming up for long. [REDACTED].

Interviewer: And where did you come from?

Interviewee: [REDACTED] I had boating experience and on lakes and stuff so it was kind of a natural transition.

Interviewer: That's cool. I'm Learning stuff. Most people move here for a job, so you moved here because you wanted to live here?

Interviewee: Yeah and a position opened up.
